The guest on January 28, 2010 will be the Brazilian Guitar Quartet, one of the world's leading guitar ensembles. Praised by the Washington Post for their "seductive beauty," they combine regular six-string and extended-range, eight-string guitars, allowing for the exploration of an original and unusual repertoire.

The Poulenc Trio, appearing on February 24, brings together three uniquely gifted virtuosos, oboist Vladimir Lande, bassoonist Bryan Young, and pianist Irina Kaplan Lande. Combining brilliant 21st-century vibrancy with the best of European instrumental tradition, the trio's performances leap beyond the ordinary concert experience.

Tao Lin will conclude the series on March 18. A student of Leon Fleisher, Joseph Kalichstein and Stephen Hough, Tao Lin has appeared throughout North America, Asia and Europe, receiving unanimous critical accolades for his subtle pianism and brilliant technique. Mr. Lin has performed with the Moscow Chamber Orchestra, Winnipeg Symphony, and Miami Chamber Orchestra.

Tickets for all concerts are available now by calling (858) 454-5872.
